Section C. Promissory Note Addendum

To be completed by the borrower and, if applicable, the spouse.

This is a legally binding contract.

Item 10: Sign and date the Promissory Note Addendum.

Item 11: If you originally consolidated your loans jointly with your spouse, your spouse must also sign and date the Promissory Note Addendum, regardless of whether the loan(s) being added is yours or your spouse's. However, if your spouse was not originally a party to your Federal Consolidation Loan, you cannot add your spouse's loan(s) at this time.

Note: Signature(s) is required. If you (or you and your spouse, if you consolidated jointly) fail to sign the Promissory Note Addendum, your request will be delayed.

Review all information you have provided on this form. When it is complete, send the original copy to the consolidating lender. Keep a copy for your records. If your spouse is required to sign this form, make a copy for your spouse. Remember to continue making your regularly scheduled education loan payments until your consolidating lender notifies you that the loan(s) has been added. When your loan(s) is added, your consolidating lender will notify you of any changes to the terms of your Federal Consolidation Loan.

Mailing Instructions: Mail the original copy of this form to your consolidating lender.

Privacy Act Notice

The Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a) requires that the following notice be provided to you:

The authority for collecting the requested information from and about you is §428(b)(2)(A) et seq. of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended (20 U.S.C. 1078(b)(2)(A) et seq.), and the authority for collecting and using your Social Security Number (SSN) is §484(a)(4)(B) of the HEA (20 U.S.C. 1078-2(f)). Participating in the Federal Family Education Loan Program (FFELP) and giving us your SSN are voluntary, but you must provide the requested information, including your SSN, to participate.

The principal purposes for collecting the information on this form, including your SSN, are to verify your identity, to determine your eligibility to receive a loan(s) or a benefit on a loan(s) (such as a deferment, forbearance, discharge, or forgiveness) under the FFELP, to permit the servicing of your loan(s), and, if it becomes necessary, to locate you and to collect on your loan(s) if your loan(s) becomes delinquent or in default. We also use your SSN as an account identifier and to permit you to access your account information electronically.

The information in your file may be disclosed to third parties as authorized under routine uses in the appropriate systems of records. The routine uses of this information include its disclosure to federal, state, or local agencies, to other federal agencies under computer matching programs, to agencies that we authorize to assist us in administering our loan programs, to private parties such as relatives, present and former employers, business and personal associates, to credit bureau organizations, to educational and financial institutions, to guaranty agencies, and to contractors in order to verify your identity, to determine your eligibility to receive a loan(s) or a benefit on a loan(s), to permit the servicing or collection of your loan(s), to counsel you in repayment efforts, to enforce the terms of the loan(s), to investigate possible fraud and to verify compliance with federal student financial aid program regulations, to locate you if you become delinquent in your loan payments or if you default, to provide default rate calculations, to provide financial aid history information, to assist program administrators with tracking refunds and cancellations, or to provide a standardized method for educational institutions efficiently to submit student enrollment status.

In the event of litigation, we may send records to the Department of Justice, a court, adjudicative body, counsel, party, or witness if the disclosure is relevant and necessary to the litigation. If this information, either alone or with other information, indicates a potential violation of law, we may send it to the appropriate authority for action. We may send information to members of Congress if you ask them to help you with federal student aid questions. In circumstances involving employment complaints, grievances, or disciplinary actions, we may disclose relevant records to adjudicate or investigate the issues. If provided for by a collective bargaining agreement, we may disclose records to a labor organization recognized under 5 U.S.C. Chapter 71. Disclosures may also be made to qualified researchers under Privacy Act safeguards.
